Partnerships and Collaboration

For the first time, ADRIC is working with the Canadian Corporate Counsel Association ("CCCA") to create one of the most unique special interest events you will ever attend. CCCA's input and attendance is a major contribution to this year's program. ADRIC is also collaborating with International Chamber of Commerce, Canada ("ICC Canada") to enhance the arbitration stream. All in all, over 40 stimulating sessions in four specialized streams - this will be the largest, most prestigious and most important ADR event of the year.

Who will attend

Our conference has become an event that is eagerly anticipated and extremely well attended by: leading ADR practitioners across Canada, senior government staff and officials specializing in conflict resolution, and corporations and organization that rely on ADR. This year, because of our partnership, we expect a great number of corporate counsel.

Our conference attracts ADR practitioners who specialize in areas such as international relations, restorative justice, human rights, community, family, environmental, aboriginal, intellectual property, information technology, construction, international and domestic commercial activity and more. Attendance for previous years has been up to 450.

Where and when

This year's conference is scheduled for Thursday and Friday, October 23-24, 2014 at the Montreal Hilton Bonaventure.

Canada's premier ADR event!

in partnership with Canadian Corporate Counsel Association and in collaboration with International Chamber of Commerce Canada

Wednesday October 22, Pre-Conference Afternoon Workshop:

PERSONAL BRANDING WORKSHOP: 'THE ART AND SCIENCE OF SELF-PROMOTION'

There is a wealth of customer loyalty research that exists. If consumer behaviour can be predicted, then there is no reason why in-house counsel and dispute resolution practitioners cannot benefit from this information.

One concept that has taken hold is "personal branding." Personal branding is not about creating an artificial image for the outside world. It is about understanding your own unique value proposition, and using that to influence clients and co-workers.

accredited

In this interactive workshop, you will:

THIS PROGRAM CONTAINS 1.5 LSUC PROFESSIONALISM HOURS

- Discover the importance of having a personal brand.
- Be guided through a fun and thought-provoking exercise to articulate your own unique value proposition.
- Learn to use your values as a compass to guide your career and make professional decisions.
- Walk away with "content" to build and promote your professional profile.

This workshop is being facilitated by Paulette Pommells, founder of Creative Choices™ for the 21st century lawyer. Paulette is a professional coach, who works with lawyers exclusively, and has a background in civil litigation and mediation.
